Ben is in touch with Toni on some additional changes. We still need Karl's signature.

Toni has taken over the edit for now because there are hand written edits. We will be good to go as long as there are not technical glitches.

Curtis – Are the edits you dropped off on Ben's desk the final edits?

Thanks,

Thanks for the update. Mike will be available to post the report and WLU this afternoon.

How close are we to having the PDF of the final WLU?

I'm working to get the .pdf report. The report can be emailed by LaTonya at 1:00 to Blunt and then at 1:30 to the other Congressionals. We would then need to post it in time for the WL Update posting at 2:00.

Ok, so just the .pdf of the WLU is emailed to congressional members without a link at 1:30.
Either way works for me.

Regarding the .gov, my understanding is the ORD report gets posted at 1:30 with the WLU posted at 2:00 (per usual timeline). I think Curtis will need to confirm.

It looks like we need to post the WLU @ 1:30 since the email is going out (which contains the .pdf version and the link to our online version). Please let me know if I'm off track with this assessment. Thanks,

Plans for Monday's WL Plans (if you have thoughts about needing to adjust this let me know):

- 1:00 Sen. Blunt letter on ORD assessment (email and mail)
- 1:30 WL Update Emailed to all congressional members with simultaneous posting of ORD report to web page
- 2:00 WL Update Emailed to list (ORD report is on web page)
  - Sarah: I'm assuming this includes all relevant state and local elected officials. If not, please let me know
  - Shannon and Toni: Social Media push. Let's use the WL #. The top story is important to the WL interested people.
- 2:00 OPA team ready for media inquiries on ORD assessment
  - Spokesperson: Karl Brooks

Does anyone have factoids for social media? E.g, like the number of Superfund sites successfully remediated in the EPA's history? Randy Deitz at HQ told me it's a 1,000 SF remediated to date. He also said there are currently 1,700 active SF sites. These numbers would need to be verified.

Thanks,

Curtis
